

Executive Biography

Sean Handley Director of Business Sales

Sean joined BendBroadband in 2009 and has been closely involved in the Vault project, working on the development of the business plan and the detailed contract negotiations with the anchor tenants. He has successfully led the Company's Business Services sales organization during a period of rapid growth. Sean has over 20 years of experience in sales and management, during which time he has gained extensive experience as a consultant in technology solutions, including disaster recovery / business continuity, backup and recovery, virtualization, networking, and data storage architectures. Prior to joining BendBroadband he spent time with General Electric, DataLink and EMC. He is a Graduate of California State University, Long Beach in Kinesiology and holds an MBA in Technology Management